Join us for a tour of four fascinating camps in the foothills of Alberta:

CAMP KINDLE: Recently purchased and being redeveloped by the Kids Cancer Care Foundation- see a new challenge course and upgraded nursing station, among other improvements.

CAMP CADICASU: After a devastating fire in 2005, Cadicasu moved to a new site and rebuilt from scratch. Learn about rethinking everything and starting over, along with tips on navigating building codes, fire safety regulations, and a long list of other unforeseen factors.

TIM HORTONS RANCH: One of the signature facilities run by the Tim Hortons Foundation, see the ranch under renovation and learn about future program directions.

CAMP VALAQUA: In the middle of a large pine forest not far from Camp Kindle, Camp Valaqua is operated by the Alberta Mennonite Conference. Learn more about the rewards and sacrifices of running a church camp in Alberta.
